

The do not call list has changed our evenings. It easily went from 4 calls a night to almost none. It is important to maintain the protection we have gotten from harrassing, pestering solicitors, especially for lonely elderly who fall victim to scams easily. Just because I have a phone doesn't give solicitors the right to call me and bother me all evening. Thank you